Price laggard against earnings uptrend

BDMS' earnings are in an uptrend with 39% growth in 2022 and the ability to pass through rising costs given the high pricing power inherent in the healthcare business, both strong positives. Thailand's reopening makes travel to the country easier, boosting BDMS' international patient services. However, for 2QTD, share price has slipped 1%, lagging BH's 12% rise and the average 7% rise for tourism-related plays. We see this as a short-term trading opportunity. Outperform with end-2022 DCF TP of Bt30/share.

Strong 2Q22 operations. A talk with the company suggests strong operations in 2Q22 with estimated revenue growth of 20-30% YoY in April–May, backed by growing non-COVID-19 services and improving international patient services. BDMS expects revenue from international patients (22% of 1Q22 revenue vs. 30% of pre-COVID-19 revenue) to grow YoY and QoQ in 2Q-4Q22; key markets are Japan (2.4% of 1Q22 revenue), CLMV (2.2%), the Middle East (1.7%) and USA (1.6%). In our view, Thailand's full reopening, making travel to the country easier for both patients and tourists, as well as a better economic situation, will benefit BDMS since ~17% of its 2021 hospital revenue was derived from hospitals in tourist destinations (Phuket, Surat Thani, Chonburi and Chiangmai). BDMS says demand for COVID-19 hospitalization has been down in 2Q22TD, aligning with a fall in COVID-19 cases in Thailand from average daily cases of 21K in April to 6.4K in May and 2.5K in June.

Earnings uptrend in 2Q-4Q22. We expect 2Q22 core earnings to grow YoY from growing non-COVID-19 services and improving international patient services but soften QoQ on a lower season and fading revenue from COVID-19 services. YoY earnings improvement will continue in 3Q-4Q22, bringing 39% core earnings growth to Bt10.6bn in 2022, moving above pre-COVID-19 level. We base this on 12% revenue growth in the belief that strong non-COVID-19 and international patient services will offset lower revenue from COVID-19 services and 24.7% EBITDA margin (up from 23.3% in 2021) as BDMS can pass through rising costs given the high pricing power inherent in the healthcare business.

Attractive laggard play. In our view, a laggard price performance against the earnings uptrend from benefits from Thailand's reopening suggests a short-term trading opportunity for BDMS. In 2QTD, share price has slipped 1%, lagging BH's 12% increase and a 7% average increase in tourism-related plays. We keep our 3-month tactical call of Outperform on BDMS with end-2022 DCF TP of Bt30/share and it is our top pick in the healthcare service sector.

Risks. Unpredictable events such as another pandemic that will interrupt patient traffic, intense competition, workforce shortage and regulatory risk.

Value proposition

BDMS is Thailand's largest private hospital operator (53 hospitals with over 8,500 beds) and is one of the top five private hospital operators in the world by market capitalization. BDMS is placing itself to get in on rising demand for quality healthcare and to provide the entire spectrum of healthcare service, from preventive (wellness business) to curative and rehabilitative.

Business outlook

We forecast continued improvement in earnings with 39% growth in 2022 to Bt10.6bn, above pre-COVID-19 level, with more Thai patients coming for care after COVID-19 eased and improving international patient services that will offset the fading of COVID-19 services. BDMS is strengthening its Thai patient base, mainly middle incomers, by collaborating with insurance companies to provide exclusive health insurance policies. It is developing a digital health ecosystem to build sustainable growth in the future alongside a change in consumer behavior together with innovations and developments in telecommunications that will foster growth in the telemedicine market, i.e., for virtual consultations and a health mall. In 2022, BDMS will spend Bt500mn (not sizable against its usual Bt6-7bn capex) to develop the digital platform. It targets revenue from the digital health ecosystem to contribute 10-15% of revenue in the next five years from 1% now. Apart from its large patient base, we expect its medical expertise and patient trust will draw new users into its digital health platform.

BDMS has set forth a sustainable development policy. Environmentally, in 2021, BDMS piloted a project to inspect and assess greenhouse gas emission from every activity at Bangkok Hospital, its head office. Socially, BDMS has set up projects to improve labor and human rights, incentives and personnel retention, health and personnel safety, community involvement and access to medical services as well as practices regarding sales and labeling.

Bullish views

1. Sound fundamentals, providing the entire spectrum of healthcare, from preventive (wellness business) to curative and rehabilitative.
2. Collaboration with Ping An Health Insurance Company of China, Ltd. (Ping An Health) which is a part of Ping An Insurance Group Company of China, Ltd., the largest insurance company in China.
3. Laggard play

Bearish views

1. Material operational improvement requires return of international patients.
2. Concern about competition.

Key catalysts

Factor	Event	Impact	Comment
Near-term earnings outlook	2Q22F earnings momentum	+YoY and -QoQ	We expect 2Q22 core earnings to grow YoY from rising non-COVID-19 services and improving international patient services but soften QoQ on a lower season for non-COVID-19 services and fading revenue from COVID-19 services.
Factors to be aware of in 2022	Easing travel restrictions	Positive impact	Eased travel restrictions will allow more fly-in and medical tourism patients to come to Thailand. We expect the recovery of international patient segment (~30% of pre-COVID-19 revenue) to accelerate in 2H22.
