

Market today

"Moving between 1,600 – 1,628. Follow US inflation report"

We expect the SET to move between 1,600–1,628, supported by foreign fund inflows as the Thai baht continues to appreciate. However, we expect limited short-term upside as investors expect the US inflation report, to be released tonight, to show a slowing as forecasted. The MPC is expected to raise rate by 25 bps at its meeting today.

Today's highlights

- Oil price may be volatile as Ukraine has suspended deliveries to Europe since it has not received payment from Russia; this will jump oil price for the short term with a countering pressure if a nuclear agreement between Iran and world powers is reached.
- China has suspended delivery of sand to Taiwan. This is a major raw material for production of semiconductors and will lead to a chip shortage. President Biden today signed a bill to produce chips in the US to compete with China.
- The Ministry of Labour will ask the Cabinet to raise minimum wage 5-8%, to take effect in October.
- The cabinet will develop tourism, agriculture and aviation in EEC.
- The NBTC did not deal with the TRUE-DTAC merger today as it is still collecting information.
- Today's high point: MPC meets, US July inflation report.

Strategy today

Financial markets have begun to relax after US core inflation and commodity prices have started to slow, making it likely that the Fed will change its stance to a more relaxed monetary policy. However, the SET this week is expected to continue volatile on speculation on 2Q22 earnings, with an eye on a rate hike signal at the monetary policy committee meeting on August 10. We recommend "selective buy" in stocks with specific positive drivers and solid earnings recovery.

Support - Resistances

1600/1590 – 1620/1628

Trading today

Weekly portfolio: As the market is still in the quarterly report season, we recommend stocks with specific positive drivers and good profit momentum:

- 1) stocks that benefit from recovery in tourists and whose 2Q22 is expected to grow well both YoY and QoQ – ERW, MINT, CRC and AOT;
- 2) stocks that benefit from the upcycle in interest rates – BBL, KBANK and KTB.
- 3) energy stocks whose 2Q22 earnings are expected to show good growth and which are interesting because of the fall in oil price – PTT and BCP.

There is news the Ministry of Labour may raise minimum wage by 5-8%, with discussion in August, possibly taking effect this year. Based on a preliminary study on the effect of raising minimum wage on earnings forecasts for 2023, we find that a 5-10% raise in minimum wage would reduce market net profit by 2-5%, with the heaviest negative in parcel logistics, property development (both reduced by 6-12%) and food (reduced by 10%) sectors.

Daily focus

THREL: We expect 3Q22 and 4Q22 profit to recover and have grown strongly YoY from improving margin due to lower claim rates, while its S-curve strategy will expand its business into new markets, increasing profitability and growth of reinsurance premiums.

PTT: We expect 2Q22 profit to grow YoY and QoQ from strong oil price and refinery margin aiding profit in E&P and P&R businesses, and reduced effect from hedging risk contracts. In addition, there is still upside risk of interim dividends, which is a short-term positive factor.

Today's reports

- Petrochemicals – Naphtha-based producers to benefit
- AP – 2Q22: Up YoY but down QoQ, as expected
- DCC – 2Q22: In line with our estimates
- GGC – Solid 2Q22 profit was in line
