Although the SET was able to rise, but as it enters an overbought condition, the market may slow and rest. Resistances are at 1415 and 1420, while short-term supports are at 1405 and 1398. A fall below this would be a negative sign for resting.

Today's highlights

- The Ministry of Tourism reports a significant increase in tourists over Dec 18-24 due to the holiday season. Foreign tourist arrivals in Thailand reached 796,808, a 16.6%WoW increase, bringing arrivals from March 1 to Dec 24 to over 27mn.
- The Cabinet approved the extension of the reduced fees for property transfer and mortgages for homes priced at no more than Bt3mn for another year. It also approved a Bt2-16 increase in the minimum daily wage, effective Jan 1, 2024. The Prime Minister said the Wage Board will meet early next year to consider another wage increase in Mar 2024. The Cabinet also approved the monetary policy target for the Ministry of Finance and the Bank of Thailand for the medium term and for 2024, aiming for an inflation rate within the 1-3% range.
- The EEC Board is set to ask the Cabinet to consider a draft announcement regarding benefits for businesses in the Special Economic Promotion Zone, expected to take effect in Jan 2024, to attract investment in targeted industries.
- The DSI sent a letter to the Secretary of Transportation and the Governor of MRTA after an investigation found that the committee selecting the Orange Line electric train project did not verify the qualifications of the private sector participants, meaning the selection process may be contrary to the law.
- The US National Home Price Index for Oct showed an increase of 4.8%YoY, the highest this year, bolstering investor confidence that the U.S. economy will experience a soft landing.
- Intel Corp.'s shares rose over 4%DoD after news the company is investing US$25bn in a new chip manufacturing plant in Israel, the largest foreign corporate investment in Israel's history.

Strategy today

Capital markets around the world have begun to slow down after rising in the US for the past two months as the world enters the Christmas and the New Year period. The Thai capital market is expected to have short-term catalysts from window-dressing and fund flows into TESG funds and RMF in the final week of the year, and if the SET is able to stand above 1400, there might be short covering. Our strategy is "Selective buy".

Trading today

Weekly portfolio: In the immediate term, there will be catalysts from window-dressing and inflows into TESG funds and RMFs in the final week of the year. If the SET is able to stand above 1400, there might be short covering. We recommend "selective buy" in themes with specific drivers:

- 1) Big-cap stocks in SET50 expected to be selected as investment targets as the TESG fund is set up. Our picks are classified into two groups: 1) companies with ESG rating of between "A" and "AAA" and price has underperformed the SET YTD - OR and AOT; and 2) companies with ESG rating of "AAA" that have outperformed the SET YTD with strong profit and expected to have dividend yield greater than 5% - PTT, KTB.
- 2) Stocks benefiting from declining bond yield - Commerce (BJC, CPALL and CPAXT), Healthcare (BDMS and BCH), Utilities (GULF), REIT (DIF), Property Development (AP) and Consumer Finance (TIDLOR).
- 3) Stocks that may be supported by short covering, up by 10% of trading value since Sep 23 and our recommendation - ADVANC and MINT.
- 4) Stocks benefiting from the e-refund measure allowing a personal income tax deduction on purchases of up to Bt50,000 between Jan 1-Feb 15, 2024 - CRC and HMPRO.

In the short term we recommend being cautious on stocks that are expected to be materially affected by the planned raise in the minimum wage, set to be discussed in the Dec 25 cabinet meeting: Courier Services (KEX), Food (CPF, ZEN, GFPT and TU), Real Estate (LPN and PSH) and Electronic Components (HANA). In the medium term we recommend being cautious on stocks that are set to be affected by El Nino, which will erode purchasing power in the agricultural sector: Finance (MTC, SAWAD), Automotive (SAT, STANLY), Beverages (CBG has high sugar cost) and Food & Agriculture (CPF GFPT and BTG).

Special Report: Our Thai language Yearbook 2024 "A Year of Value Investing", highlights a substantially undervalued Thai capital market that is offering a good opportunity for long-term investment with 10 selected top picks for 2024.

Daily top picks

GPSC: Listed on the SETSG Index with an "AA" rating. In the short term the company benefits from declining US bond yield and low natural gas cost. The company is in the process of adjusting electricity sales contracts for industrial customers to be based on gas price, which will help reduce the volatility brought by changes in Ft, which does not align with cost.

AOT: Listed on the SETSG Index with an "A" rating. The stock price has fallen by 12% in the last five weeks to a 21-month low on concerns over the slow return of Chinese tourists and a cut in 2024 arrivals forecast. We see this as an opportunity to purchase the stock for long-term investment as profit is recovering.
