Another round of stimulus

Of the five stimulus policies announced on April 9, we view the cut in transfer and mortgage fees for residential units under Bt7mn/unit (valid until December 31, 2024) will give the greatest boost to short-term demand and developers who have offerings in this segment and supply ready to be transferred in 2024 will benefit most. We pick AP and SPALI.

Five property stimulus policies. At the April 9 cabinet meeting, five property stimulus measures were announced. 1) Cut transfer registration fees on residential units worth up to Bt7mn/unit, with ownership transfer fees cut to 0.01% from 2% and mortgage fee from 1% to 0.01%, valid until December 31, 2024. 2) Tax deduction for home construction: Individuals can use construction payments to reduce personal income tax with a deduction of Bt10,000 for each Bt1mn spent on construction, up to a maximum deduction of Bt100,000. Payments made between April 9, 2024, and December 31, 2025, are eligible. 3) "Happy Home" housing loan program with a Bt20bn fund from GHB carrying a 3% interest rate for five years for low to middle-income earners. 4) "Happy Life" housing loan program with a Bt10bn fund from GHB, with an average interest rate of 2.98% for the first three years. 5) Tax incentives for developers: The Bol is giving tax exemptions for up to three years (maximum 100% of the investment amount) to real estate developers constructing residential properties for low-income individuals, subject to specific criteria and conditions.

Short-term positive after a weak 1Q24. Pressured by negative factors of a higher interest rate, lower economy growth and high rejections in 1Q24F, companies under coverage (AP, LH, LPN, PSH, QH, SIRI, SPALI) reported initial presales of Bt40bn (-19% YoY and -5% QoQ), just 19% of their combined 2024F presales target of Bt214bn (+21% YoY). We expect these measures, especially the reduction in transfer and mortgage fees to 0.01% for units valued at up to Bt7mn, to boost presales from 2Q24, especially for low-rise and ready-to-move (RTM) units and condos scheduled to be finished in 2024. Since the measures are effective for only nine months, readiness to get in on the demand will be key.

AP and SPALI are top picks. We view that the stimulus makes it possible for companies to achieve targeted 2024F revenue growth of 14.6% to Bt198bn, making up for the soft 1Q24, and also help reduce inventory. There is also upside from lower SG&A from a 1% cut in payment on transfer fees. According to total inventory of units under Bt7mn available for sale (Figure 1) and ready to be transferred in 2024, SPALI (TP Bt23.80) and AP (TP Bt15/share) are poised to benefit most from these stimulus measures.
